New 2024 AIA Oregon Fellow

The 2024 Jury of Fellows has elevated one AIA Oregon Member to its prestigious College of Fellows, an honor awarded to Members who have made significant and exceptional contributions to architecture and society.

Congratulations to AIA Oregon member John Lape, FAIA!

John received his elevation under Object Three: Led the Institute, or a related organization

Fellowship in this object is granted to architects who have actively, efficiently, and cooperatively led the Institute or a related professional organization over a sustained period of time and have gained widespread recognition for the results of their work.

AIA Oregon will be hosting a reception at AIA24 Conference in June to honor John - stay tuned for more details!

AIA Oregon Receives Component Grant for Virtual Mentorship Program

AIA Oregon has been awarded a Component Grant from the National College of Fellows. Our Young Architects Forum (YAF) and National Associates Committee (NAC) reps applied for a grant to develop a new state-wide virtual mentorship program between the AIA Oregon Emerging Professionals Committee and the College of Fellows.

Be on the lookout for a call for applicants next week. The mentorship program will kick off in April with a final in-person session at the ODC.

Thank you to our YAF and NAC reps (l-r Nicole Becker, AIA and Evon Calabrese, Assoc. AIA) for their hard work that made this grant possible.

March Urban Design Panel

The Center for Tribal Nations
Mar 19 | 12-1pm | Virtual Event

In this month's Urban Design Panel, we will hear about the Center For Tribal Nations - a mixed-use development that aims to leverage the redevelopment of the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI) masterplan to establish a collaborative partnership between Native and non-Native organizations, Tribal and non-tribal governments into an integrated project that will restore Native peoples' connection to the Willamette River and address challenges of sustainability, resilience and inclusion.

AIA Small Project Design (SPD) 2024 Grant Program - Call for Submissions

The SPD advisory committee is pleased to announce the 2024 Small Project Design Knowledge Community Grant. The purpose of this grant is to provide financial support for nonprofit organizations working with architects on community-based projects. Along with supporting the work of nonprofit organizations, we want to demonstrate the value of hiring an architecture firm (and AIA member) for community projects, by helping cover some of the costs associated with hiring the design team.
