New HQ Task Force Update - Survey Results

Your AIA Oregon Headquarters Task Force (HQTF) has been working exceptionally hard analyzing the results of the member survey issued at the end of last year, and now they'd like to share the results! Hopefully you all remember the 9 questions we asked about why and how you might use an AIAO space, as well as how near it needed to be and how frequently you might visit. Are you curious to know what we learned?

We will be conducting two Thursday Roundtables to discuss the findings of the survey and recommendations for moving forward as presented by Task Force Leadership. Please bring your thoughts and questions for the team!

Join us for one (or both!) of these opportunities:

Thursday Roundtable Session 1:
April 27 | 5:00-6:00pm | Virtual Event
