'Find an Architect' Tool Returns

The Communications committee has been working on re-incorporating a 'Find an Architect' feature into our website. This tool will be a statewide resource providing introductions and contact information for AIAO Firms, and inclusion in it will be one of the benefits of Firm Membership. This page will allow visitors to filter their searches by location, project type, firm size, and several other parameters. The search tool will be similar to the earlier AIA Portland one, with checkboxes under each search category.

We would like your input on possible project types to include in the search tool. The following are the project types chosen so far:

Aviation	Justice	Resort & Hospitality
Commercial	Medical	Restoration
Educational	Multi-Family	Retail
Historic Preservation	Recreational	Senior Living
Industrial	Religious	Transit
Institutional	Residential	Urban

Are there other project types that you feel should be included? Left out? Any comments or suggestions should be sent to info@aiaoregon.org.

AIA Oregon Digital Design Series

As we all learn to adjust to the work-from-home environment, the AIA Oregon Programs Committee is planning on new and revised formats for sharing, learning, and thriving through our programming. The first new offering is the Digital Design Series, which is a 1 hour virtual session with multiple presenters on Zoom that will occur on Wednesdays at 5:00pm. The topics of this series are design-focused, are based on the concept of Learning from Sharing lead by people in our community and should provide opportunities for discussion. The first two sessions are focused on tools and techniques that groups are incorporating to create an inclusive and collaborative design process within an environment of social distancing.

Digital Design Collaboration – Firms

Wed, April 22, 2020, 5:00-6:00

In these unusual times we all find ourselves in, there is now a greater focus on how our workflow and digital capabilities can demonstrate design value to our clients. We are breaking new ground in virtual design engagement and should consider how we work (post Covid-19) might be changed forever. In this session, teams from DLR Group and Hacker will share the lessons they've learned over the last few weeks adapting their design processes to maintain design quality and project schedules.

NCARB and Prometric Update

Due to ongoing concerns over safe delivery of examinations, Prometric has decided to keep all test centers in North America closed until May 1, 2020. As a result, NCARB has extended their no-cost rescheduling period for Architect Registration Examination® (ARE®) appointments and is adding an additional six-month rolling clock extension to all valid passing scores. No action has to be taken to receive the extension.

Conferences are Going Virtual

With the end to social distancing nowhere in sight, organizations have had to quickly take their previously planned large events and conferences and make them virtual. Events like the following will be good gauges for the rest of us to use to learn how to change our in-person events in the coming months into engaging virtual experiences.

HOPES [26]

ONLINE: APRIL 15th – 17th

UO Hopes [26] Conference - Now Online

April 15-17 | Zoom Video Conference

Inaugurated in 1994, the conference is an opportunity for students, faculty, community members, and visiting scholars to discuss the relationship between ecology and various design disciplines, and how this connection can produce sustainable solutions to contemporary problems. The conference began on Wednesday, but there is still plenty of content to check out.

CSI Northwest by West Bi-Region Conference - Rescheduled

Rescheduled for October 25-27th | Sunriver Resort

Based on current CDC recommendations and following the Governor's ban on social gatherings on March 11th, it was decided to postpone the Conference. The new dates for the conference will be October 25-27, 2020 and the event will be held at the same location in Sunriver. They are hopeful that our educational program will remain largely intact, but this will depend on speaker availability for the new dates. So far, the majority of the pre-senters are available for the new dates. Updates will be published on the website within the coming weeks.

Design Museum Mornings Program

Online Webinars - Monthly

Design Museum Mornings is a monthly morning lecture series meant to convene, inspire, and educate. Each event includes discussion and a 20-minute presentation from a design thought leader. Whether you're a designer or not, the Design Museum Mornings are meant to inspire you before your day begins and bring you closer to the Design Museum community.

With the current health situation, Design Museum has taken the conversation online, turning their morning get-togethers into a virtual community event.
