SURVEY RESULTS: Here's what you want from our new HQ

April 20, 2023

Earlier this year, members across Oregon responded to a survey to share their hopes for AIA Oregon's new HQ. The survey focused on two main questions: Where should the space or spaces be located? And what should we use them for?

We'll be sharing the full survey results, answering your questions and talking through what's next at two upcoming Thursday Roundtables. Join us on April 27 or May 4 at 5pm to learn more and get involved!

Follow the link below for a preview of what the task force is recommending.
