

Oregon Phased Reopening

Governor Brown has released updated guidelines to reopen the economy.

Statewide allowances now:

May 1 – With adequate PPE, non-emergency procedures, medical & dental clinics, veterinary were allowed to start at 50% capacity

May 5 – Some state recreation facilities and day-use parks, boat ramps and optional county/federal campgrounds opening with physical distancing guidelines

Statewide allowances coming:

May 15 – Childcare, summer school, camps and youth programs, all with specific limitations and guidelines (more guidance next week)

May 15 – Stand-alone retail stores previously closed can reopen if can follow OSHA guidelines, i.e. furniture stores, art galleries, jewelry shops and boutiques

The other restrictions will be lifted in three phases and are done by COUNTY.

We'll update the AIA Oregon home page as information is available.

Firms stepping up to help

Help us plan for 2020!

2019
PAA

We have various design recognition programs in our local communities, including the Portland Architectural Awards and the Eugene People's Choice Awards, both of which traditionally are held in Autumn. As we plan our programs and events through the remainder of the year, we are assuming that traditional in-person events with larger groups will need to occur virtually this year. As we adapt what we've done in the past in a different format, we need to make sure we understand the purpose and objective for each of these events, and take the time to align them with our values.

With this in mind, AIA Oregon is forming a Design Awards Task Force to evaluate our current programs:

- The purpose of the design awards program, including peer jury design awards and public-selected "People's Choice" programs.
- Evaluate if the implementation of the programs adequately supports the defined purpose(s), including broad representation from our community.
- Consider more coordination between existing local programs to support chapter-wide goals and initiatives.
- Implementation for 2020 programs within the context of the current health crisis.

The first meeting, which will focus on a summary of current programs, will be the week of May 25. The task force commitment is minimum of (3), hour long Zoom meetings through the end of June. The task force is expected to provide recommendations to the AIA Oregon Board of Directors to help guide the implementation of events in 2020 and beyond.

AIA Oregon Digital Design Series

Last week AIA Oregon began the Digital Design Series, a 1 hour virtual session with multiple presenters on Zoom that will occur at 5:00pm on Wednesdays. The topics of this series are design-focused, are based on the concept of Learning from Sharing, led by people in our community and should provide opportunities for discussion.

If you have an idea for an upcoming Digital Design Series event, or would like to participate, please contact info@aiaoregon.org

"Nature is the Gold Standard for a Healthy Human Environment"

Wed, June 3, 2020, 5:00-6:00pm

Since 1992, Paula has dedicated her Architectural practice to the precepts of Environmentally Sound and Health Enhancing Architecture. Together with her husband Robert Laporte, she directs EcoNest Natural Building Seminars and Workshops.

She will talk about an approach to health that goes beyond "non-harm" to spaces that deeply nurture our wellbeing while stewarding the environment. She will share some lessons that I have learned over the past 30 years about health in the built environment and a body of knowledge that originated in Europe in the early 70's called Bau-Biologie or Building Biology. Building Biology holds nature as the gold standard for a healthy human environment and from this perspective identified 25 guiding principles.

AIA Virtual Happy Hour

AIA Oregon Virtual Happy Hours | Fridays | 4-5pm

The AIA Oregon Virtual Happy Hours are a chance for colleagues to get together in an informal setting and engage. To seed the conversation, we like to start with a relevant topic. This week we will discuss the idea of a design competition and/or workshop to address the challenging topic of emergency and transitional housing with the context of safe and healthy physical distancing.

The events will run an hour or more - feel free to drop in and out at any time during the event. You do not have to be a regular member of any group to attend - all AIA Oregon members are welcome.

The next Virtual Happy Hour is this Friday, May 8, at 4pm.
