Did You Know? ARE Study Lending Libraries

Did you know that each of our AIA Oregon sections has a Lending Library? The Lending Libraries are meant to be a resource for all AIA Oregon members, with a focus on helping provide Emerging Professionals with resources needed to help prepare for the Architectural Registration Exams.

Follow the link below to find out where each section's library is located, as well as what books you can expect to find.

Business of Architecture Series

Session 3 | May 12 | 9am-1pm
Virtual Event | 4 AIA LU|Elective Available

Streamlining Operations to Achieve Your Business Goals

Business planning and professional development mean little without proper implementation. How will you structure your team for the greatest results? What bottlenecks are slowing down your design execution? Can clear roles and responsibilities improve operations while also creating paths for advancement?

This final session will explore alternative ways of thinking about your day-to-day operations using case studies from other small design firms.
