2023 Oregon Architecture Awards Jury Chair Announcement

May 18, 2023

AIA Oregon is pleased to announce the Jury Chair for this year's Architecture Awards – Jamie Torres Carmona, AIA, NCARB, LEED AP BD+ C, principal and founder of Canopy in Chicago.

Jamie Founded Canopy to explore his belief in design as a vehicle for positive change, through projects ranging in scale from community and health centers to housing, schools, mixed-use buildings and urban design. Jamie is drawn towards the urban and civic realm and its impact on the human experience, and is recognized for his sensitivity toward the end user, the community impact and the environment.

AIAO Small Firms Exchange Monthly Meeting - Date Change

New Date - May 24 | New Time - 1-2pm | Virtual Event

"Small Firms & the 2030 Commitment"

Nate Kipnis, FAIA is a small firm owner of Kipnis Architecture & Planning based in Illinois. He is founding member of the AIA's 2030 Commitment Working Group in 2009, and is spearheading an effort to grow small firms signatories to the AIA's 2030 Commitment on the SFX National Board.

As an early adopter of the 2030 Commitment & a consistent advocate for climate action, Nate will discuss first hand how his small firm, which focuses primarily on single family residential projects, has supported the commitment. Nate will offer myth busting advice on how small firms can join the 2030 Commitment and share available resources to help document progress.
