A Special Message from AIA Oregon President, Seth Anderson, AIA:

Dear Members, Partners and Friends:

If you've been following AIA Oregon's change over the past several years from a group of four collaborating chapters and a state council to our 2019 launch of AIA Oregon, our single state chapter – you were reminded that organizational changes require vision, leadership and perseverance. Additionally, strong leaders share the belief that with change comes growth and expected... and sometimes unexpected... opportunity.

The latter is illustrated again for us as we undergo a change in operational leadership. AIA Oregon Executive Vice President and CEO, Robert Hoffman, AIA, has elected to conclude his work for the chapter and return to the practice of architecture in July after almost thirteen years of AIA service. Since 2006, Robert has volunteered as an AIA Portland director, treasurer, 2010 AIA Portland President, and Center for Architecture President, ultimately, applying for and being selected for full-time employment as AIA Portland/Oregon EVP/CEO since 2014.

We will miss Robert's contribution to AIA Oregon in a formal capacity, but remain appreciative of his work overseeing the day-to-day operation of the chapter, as well as his leadership in program development and outreach to our communities and industry partners. We know he will remain an active member and volunteer participant of AIA Oregon. Please wish him well, as the board does, as he transitions back into architectural practice.

Do you have suggestions

The AIA Oregon Board of Directors will be immediately seeking an interim Executive Director to fill the position and continue the work of the Chapter. A formal national search for a new Executive Director will take place once the board has defined the position. Stay tuned for more updates in the weeks to come... and thank you for your continued support and engagement with AIA Oregon!
