AIA Oregon Office Closed Monday

Jun 15, 2023

On Monday, June 19, our AIA Oregon office (and many other AIA offices, including AIA National) will be closed in the observance of Juneteenth, a Federal Holiday created by the Juneteenth national Independence Day Act of 2021.

For more information on Juneteenth, and why we remember it, please see Heather Wilson's Message From this week.

June Urban Design Panel

UO Urban Design Studio - Future Visions for Downtown Portland
Jun 20 | 1-2pm | Virtual Event

This spring, the Urban Design Studio at the University of Oregon focused on future visions for Downtown Portland with specific attention given to the waterfront area. Student proposals investigated new visions for the waterfront and opportunities to reconnect with the river, to add housing in the area, and to create thriving neighborhood centers.

This work will help inform the AIA DAT (Design Assistance Team) that will be happening in Portland in Fall 2023. We invite you to come see the student proposals and join the conversation about the future of our City.

Free On-demand CE Available from Interior Tech

Course available through the end of June

Our Allied Partner Interior Tech has started a new platform for CES Education meant to reach those that can't make the in-person courses, as well as smaller firms that aren't able to bring in CE providers. This program is designed to provide not only AIA HSW education but also a chance to learn at your own pace and continue engaging with the course throughout the week.

They have provided AIA Oregon with a platform specifically for us. The course below will be available on that platform through the end of June.
