July 22 | 3-5pm | In-Person Tour - Salem Public Library
Free for AIA Members | $15 Non-AIA Members

The Salem Public Library's downtown location was due for a renovation to bring its structural resilience and building systems up to modern standards. The 96,000 SF concrete structure was built in 1970 and underwent an expansion in 1990. When funding came through for seismic renovation, accessibility improvements and life-safety updates, the city and library saw a rare chance to address some of the additional challenges encountered by staff and library patrons in their aging concrete building and outdated spaces.

Join Hacker, Howard S. Wright Construction, and the Salem Public Library for a tour of this award-winning, newly renovated space. We are limiting the tour to 40 people, so register now!

AIA Central Washington 2021 Design Awards

Call for Entries | Registration Deadline July 30

To encourage and recognize design excellence, the Central Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Architects announces its Design Awards Program for 2021.

Through this program, the AIA|CW seeks to celebrate achievements in design excellence; generate greater public interest in architecture; and honor Architects, Clients, and Consultants who work together to create and enhance our built environment.

Projects designed by registered, licensed architects who are AIA members in another chapter are eligible for consideration for the Regional Award if the project is located within the AIA|CW geographical boundaries. Geographical boundaries include the following Washington State counties: Adams, Asotin, Benton, Columbia, Franklin, Garfield, Grant, Kittitas, Klickitat, Walla Walla, and Yakima.
