New AIA Oregon Home Page

Check out the new AIAO website Home Page! Our new home page features links to upcoming events, the current newsletter, and a rotating gallery of photos intended to highlight the spectacular work of our members. The current galleries are a mix of the winners of the 2019 Portland Architecture Awards and the 2019 Eugene People's Choice Awards.

The front page now also includes a thank you to our generous gold level and higher Allied Partners and room for a rotating advertisement. If you are interested in advertising on the website (or in the T@3 newsletter), please contact info@aiaoregon.org.

Submissions Due August 24, 2020

Design has the power to solve some of the biggest issues facing cities today. We believe these stories are among the most important stories we can tell. The AIA Film Challenge is a film contest that amplifies these stories.

If you have a phone, you're a filmmaker! AIA Film Challenge is now open with new format: the Mini-Doc. Use your smartphone or computer to produce a 60-90 second mini documentary. You could win up to $7000! Share your story of architects partnering with communities and civic leaders to design a healthy, sustainable, just world.

AIA Webinar: Getting Started with the AIA Film Challenge 2020

July 15 | 12pm PDT | Free

Set your mini documentary apart from the crowd!

Tune in next week for a virtual conversation with two AIA Film Challenge 2020 judges, Kezi Ban and Sarah Curry, Assoc. AIA. They'll cover everything you need to create a winning film, including the prompt, what they're looking for in a mini documentary, and key judging criteria. They'll also be available to answer your questions. Don't miss your chance to hear directly from the judges and set yourself up to win!

AIA Webinar - "Getting Hired During COVID-19: Tips for New Grads"

July 15 | 11:00 - 12:30pm PDT | Free

2020 graduates and early career professionals are entering the profession at an unprecedented time. With social distancing guidelines, and states slowly lifting their stay-at-home orders, starting your career can be a daunting task. As the profession prepares for economic uncertainty, firms must be more discerning about how they grow their staff.

In this webinar, hear from three firm leaders and a recently hired emerging professional on what firms are looking for in potential candidates. Learn tips on how to stand out from the crowd and navigate the interviewing process. Finally, prepare yourself for the virtual onboarding process and integrating yourself into the team from afar.

Design Museum Mornings Program

Online Webinars - Monthly

Design Museum Mornings is a monthly morning lecture series meant to convene, inspire, and educate. Each event includes discussion and a 20-minute presentation from a design thought leader. Whether you're a designer or not, the Design Museum Mornings are meant to inspire you before your day begins and bring you closer to the Design Museum community.

With the current health situation, Design Museum has taken the conversation online, turning their morning get-togethers into a virtual community event. Contact info@aiaoregon.org for a promo code to attend the following events for free:
