Series

November 6 | 11:45am-1pm | UO Location TBD | CEU pending

The University of Oregon's Division of Equity and Inclusion, along with AIA Oregon, is proud to present Zena Howard, FAIA, Partner & Managing Director of Perkins & Wills, as the first Speaker in the University of Oregon's 2019-20 African American Workshop & Lecture Series.

Ms. Howard sees the built environment as an expression of human understanding and our collective values. As a key leader in Perkins and Will's cultural practice, she will share how she has used the power of design to engage disenfranchised communities, unite disparate parties, and infuse cultural meaning into projects from national icons to urban landscapes.

2019 Reynolds Symposium: Education by Design

October 18-19 | Portland, OR

We are at a critical transition in architectural education – a transition that must propel schools to address the urgency of the multiple challenges facing our current environment. Through an abstract and reviewed-paper process (including traditional, poster, and lightning presentations), we call on faculty, practitioners, content experts, and students to shape the future of design teaching.
